

Local Networking Resources:

NC State Alumni Association

The NC State Alumni Association offers more than 30 regional alumni networks across the country to connect with alumni who share your love for NC State. We also invite you to check out our alumni constituency groups, which meet for reunions and other activities to network, socialize and mentor current students. Check out our events calendar and regional networks on our website!

Meetup.com

Find out what's happening in career and business meetup groups around the world and start meeting up with ones near you. Groups range from women's power networking to real estate to marketing and everything in between.

Colonial Job Seekers

A great place for unemployed and underemployed people to obtain help through Biblically based spiritual encouragement during a time of transition. To provide a sense of community, accountability, networking and job-search skill development in a confidential and professional environment.

The Frontier

A great place to work and meet people. Come login, work, hang out and meet like-minded professionals. Lots of startup activity and corporately funded events including Food Truck Rodeos.

Networking with Nate

Networking with Nate was created to help professionals in job transition learn how to efficiently use their time while networking to build relationships, and open doors to new companies they want to work with. We host a weekly networking event every Friday! Join us for our next event!

Ellevate

Looking for a group of like-minded women committed to investing in you and your career? Connect face-to-face with the Ellevate community at local events hosted by 40+ chapters worldwide.

Triangle Marketing Club

Are you a professional looking to make valuable connections in the Triangle Area? Are you looking to show off your marketing knowledge through a presentation or guest blogging? Connect with us to get updates on the monthly meetings and to connect with other talented marketers.

Raleigh Chamber

As the Triangle's largest business membership organization with more than 2,200 member firms representing two-thirds of the private sector employment in Wake County, we support the interests of the local business community. From large corporations to local startups, innovation is in Raleigh's DNA. We invite you to take advantage of the many opportunities we offer.

#LinkedIn Local Raleigh/Triangle

#LinkedIn Local Raleigh/Triangle is a worldwide initiative created with the purpose of meeting your online LinkedIn connections face-to-face. Please accept my personal invitation to come out to NC State McKimmon Center to experience our #LinkedInLocal Raleigh/Triangle. You'll be glad you did!

Raleigh LGBT Chamber

Each month we host two events, a social which fosters LGBTQA professional community connections and a dinner where a guest speaker discusses topics important to the LGBTQA community. For the latest information about upcoming events please check out our website!

North Raleigh Leads Group

The North Raleigh Leads Group is a business networking group that meets at Sprouts Monday mornings for the purpose of promoting and supporting one another. Feel free to join us at our next group!
