Discovery

AHI Connects: Meet the People.

Master craftsman Estaban Abán Montejo shows how he creates lovely jewelry from cocoyol seeds and henequén thorns.

Mérida City Tour. Stroll with your guide through this vibrant city founded in 1542 by Spanish conquistador Francisco de Montejo on the site of the ancient Mayan city of T'hó. See the Cathedral of San Ildefonso and other stately landmarks, and view murals by Mexican painter Fernando Castro Pacheco in the Palacio del Gobierno de Yucatán.

Grand Maya World Museum. Get great background details on ancient Mayan culture at this must-see, modern museum.

Uxmal. Uxmal's outstanding ruins reveal meticulous design principles and ornate stone carvings. On a guided tour, see the Pyramid of the Magician, the House of the Governor and more, plus learn about the Mayans' achievements in architecture, astronomy and mathematics.

Ceramic Workshop. Discover the ancient methods used by local artisan Patricia Martín Morales to create fine Mayan reproductions.

Cenote Sambula. Beneath the Yucatán landscape lie cavernous cenotes, freshwater wells formed by sinkholes in the limestone bedrock. Go down into a beautiful cenote maintained by a group of families in Peba.

Yucatecan Serenade. Relish this romantic musical tribute to women and their beauty by guitar trios, a celebrated cultural event.

Celestún Estuary. View vibrant American flamingos and more on a cruise through the estuary's lush mangrove and petrified forest.

Chichén Itzá. This magnificent Mayan city flourished as a hub of military and religious power from the eighth to the 13th centuries. Explore the imposing Pyramid of Kukulcan, the grand temples and the Great Ballcourt with intriguing commentary from your guide.

Noche Mexicana. Feel uplifted by joyful Mariachi music and colorful, swirling dancers at an evening performance in Mérida.

Izamal. Visit Hochtún's cemetery filled with elaborately decorated tombs, and then head to Yucatán's Yellow City and tour the 16th-century Convento de San Antonio de Padua.

Market Visit. Delve into the history of the Yucatán diet at the bustling Mercado Central and try indigenous foods. Enjoy lunch later at the Museo de la Gastronomía Yucateca.
